☞ A female spiritual medium in Ohio tells that Chief Justice Chase will be the next President of the United States, and that he will be elected by the Democratic party. The Democratic party is too polite to tell this medium that she lies, but it requests us to say, in the mildest terms possible, that she is a ridiculous and absurd old fool.—Courier-Journal.

City and Suburban.

☞ Colonel Abda Johnson, of Cartersville, was in the city yesterday.

IN the United States District Court, yesterday, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant, in the cause of Gibbons et al. vs. Jackson Graham. The case will probably go up to the Supreme Court.

The motion for a new trial in the case of E. A. McLaughlin was heard and granted.

THE Knights Templar, stockholders of the Air-Line Railroad, and members of the Press, left this morning, on the first through trip over the Air-Line Road to Gainesville. There were some eight or ten car loads.

Knights Templar.

Yesterday morning we gave a succinct account of the first day's proceedings of the Knights Templar, as far as the "profane" or uninitiated was permitted to know. The different commanderies of Knights Templar are represented here by as fine a body of men as one would like to look upon. Their knightly bearing and courtly demeanor attest the beneficent teachings of their order.

"They stand upon Time's shore,
The Present, graving on its shifting sands,
Their iron impress; close behind them lies
The vitiated Past, deep blazoned with their name;
And far before them, stretching limitless,
The unknown Ocean of the Afterward.
——At their feet are strewn
The trophies of their bloodless victories;
Around them press a mighty multitude
Of anxious hearts that count the throbs of Time."

Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock the grand and subordinate commanderies left Camp William Tracy Gould, in St. Phillip's Church Park, and proceeded to the square on Alabama street, fronting the American Hotel. Here the grand

REVIEW AND INSPECTION

took place. We will not dwell upon the scenes incident to this part of the day's proceedings. At the conclusion of the review and inspection they took up going up Alabama to Whitehall, up Whitehall and Peachtree to Walton, down Walton to Forsyth, down Forsyth to Marietta, up Marietta to Broad, down Broad to Hunter, down Hunter to Whitehall, up Whitehall to Alabama, and down Alabama to the camp. The sidewalks along the line of march were densely thronged. The band discoursed most excellent music.

THE LINE OF MARCH,

THE GRAND COMMANDERY.

From the efficient Recorder of the Grand Commandery we learn that the following officers were elected yesterday:

Right Eminent Sir George Smith Obear, St. Omer, No. 2, Macon, Grand Commander.

Very Eminent Sir William Henry Tuller, Cœur deLion No. 4, Atlanta, Deputy Grand Commander.

Eminent Sir Samuel Pugh Hamilton, Palestine No. 7, Savannah, Grand Generalissimo

Eminent Sir George Thomas Anderson, Cœur deLion No. 4, Atlanta, Grand Captain General.

Eminent Sir and Reverend Hammond Marshall, Cœur deLion No. 4, Grand Prelate.

Eminent Sir Calvin Fay, Cœur deLion No. 4, Atlanta, Grand Senior Warden.

Eminent Sir Archibald Henderson Sneed, William Tracy Gould No. 6, Forsyth, Grand Junior Warden.

Eminent Sir Joseph Eastburn Wells, St. Omer No. 2, Macon, Grand Treasurer.

Eminent Sir Charles Rudd Armstrong, St. Omer No. 2, Macon, Grand Recorder.

Eminent Sir John Gitling Deitz, St. Omer No. 2, Macon, Grand Standard Bearer.

Eminent Sir Caleb Halstead Campfield, Tancred No. 8, Albany, Grand Sword Bearer.

Eminent Sir Rufus Mathewson Rose, Cœur de Lion, No. 4, Atlanta, Grand Warder.

SIR KNIGHT L. J. GLENN

was elected to deliver the annual oration in 1872.

The next

ANNUAL GRAND CONCLAVE

will be held in Americus on the 4th Wednesday in May, 1872.

At half-past five, the citizens of Atlanta and the livery stables sent everything in the shape of a vehicle to the camp, to take the members of the grand and subordinate commanderies on a RIDE AROUND THE CITY.

We believe that not a single Knight was left out, but all were taken around to view the Gate City, its buildings and dimensions.

THE BALL.

At 10 o'clock last night we wended our way to the Kimball House. Decatur street from Peachtree to Loyd was pretty well filled up with carriages and pedestrians. This reporter soon found himself at the Decatur street entrance, and from the door to the ball-room our feelings were delicious, they could not have been bought. All was light, glitter and loveliness. Our eyes were feasted upon beauty, we were crushed in a feathery sea of lace, and satin and silk and were only kept alive by the sweet perfumes around. A glance was shot into the magnificent parlors as we ascended to the ball-room, and could see that they afforded ample scope for the broadest and longest trains. All "along the line" the reporter's eyes were made glad for the uniform of the Knights, all elegant gentlemen, the bright eyes, the pretty forms, the shining silk, soft satin and delicate muslins, the flashing of jewels, and waving of fans, made as artistic and pretty a picture as he could wish to see.

THE BALL ROOM.

Just at the door of this room the following card was placed in our hands by Professor Nichols:

Reception Ball by Cœur de Lion Commandery, K. T., Atlanta, Ga., to visiting Sir Knights, Thursday evening, May 26th, 1871, at 9 o'clock, at the H. I. Kimball House.

HOME, SWEET HOME.

COMMITTEE.

Reception Committee.—G. T. Anderson, Chairman, Red Rosette.

Floor Committee.—J. S. Nichols, Director, White Rosette, Gold Taped.

Assistants, White Rosette.—W. D. Luckie, W. H. Tuller, W. H. Hancock, Charles S. Cook.

Committee of Arrangements.—R. M. Rose, Chairman, Red and White Rosette.

BALL ROOM.

As we entered the room the Post Band, which is an excellent one, was discoursing sweet music, and the brilliant assemblage was engaged in the grand march around the spacious room, presenting a moving picture of grace and beauty that both charmed and pleased the senses. At the head of the promenaders was General A——, a genial gentleman, a splendid specimen of manhood and a gallant officer. Upon his arm was Miss G——, looking as lovely as any of those who awoke the poet's brilliant fancy or commanded the willing lances of the Knights of old.

From such a mass of loveliness we could not select the crowning beauty. As they passed us we recognized Mrs. ——, in a blue dress only equaled by her beautiful eyes. Then comes Mrs. ——, whose toilet was chaste and elegant; Mrs. ——, handsomely dressed, looked beautiful; her hair was becomingly powdered; Miss ——, marked not only for her elegant toilet, but her exquisite grace; how pretty looked Miss ——; how bright her cheek, painted by that hand that made the rosy cloud of the morning; Mrs. ——, slight and graceful in figure, yet all life and sparkle; Miss ——, with a laugh as exciting to the nerves as sleigh bells on a frosty morning; Miss ——, whose hands and feet—ah! there is not enough of them to speak of. And Miss ——, whose clear dreamy eyes, in their depth and beauty, resemble limpid fathomless lakelets.

But preoccupied space warns us to stop. It was a brilliant crowd in numbers and elegance, as well as in the social status of those composing it. The toilettes were marvels of prettiness and richness, and stood the ordeal of a critical analysis by exacting connoisseurs in dress.

THE DANCING.

The dancing was delightful, and a grand success, and will be a pleasant memory to those whose presence on the floor gave it brilliancy.

SUPPER.

The room for refreshments was opened from 11 until 1 o'clock. Groups would break away from the ball-room, and on the floor below, would go inside the mysterious doors and come back again with a generally refreshed air and satisfied look. Philoxinus, the son of somebody, wished that he had a throat longer than a crane's, and a certain part of Oliver Twist's body, intimated at meal time that there was "room for more." This reporter "was happy," and a look at his face doubtless neutralized the line of Pope:

"Man never is, but always to be blest," for he had the honor of being at a table around which was collected as much refinement, as much beauty, and as much to admire as could be found at any table in the room. He cared not for refreshments, and had but little of the feeling of poor Twist, only desiring more eyes and ears.

THE COMMITTEES

Were unanimously praised for the industry and good taste displayed by them in arranging so enjoyable a ball. The cards of invitation were neat. The music was perfect. Everything went off smoothly and pleasantly, and the ball of Cœur de Lion Commandery was a success.

TWO IN THE MORNING.

At the above hour, this reporter left the ball room. He has witnessed many ball room scenes and looked upon many brilliant gatherings, but this one presented as much that was gay and animated as he has seen for some time, and it was a regret to turn from the room where

"There was glitter of diamonds and sapphire's flash,
And the glance of the opals tear;
A twinkling of emerald, a light from pearls,
Rare treasures from far and near."

"Where there was mirth and music, and jest and wit,
And wealth, and sweet beauty's power,
And hearts that thrilled as they listened to vows,
That were told in that witching hour."

THE PRINTERS' PICNIC.—As morn sprung from the dark clasp of night on Thursday, and as the sun rose from his purple couch and gilded hill and steeple top with a bright beaming effulgence which beautified wherever it gleamed, and gave life and warmth to whatever it touched, the joyous laugh of girlhood and children filled the air with melody. Crowds with baskets and in gay attire thronged Decatur street, all were hastening to the Air-Line depot; for the printers had deserted their cases, had thrown off care and trouble, and with wives, children and sweethearts were off for Norcross on a picnic.

Under an efficient committee the tardiest couple were soon seated in the cars, the last basket was checked, one whistle from the engine and the large crowd were on their way.

NORCROSS.

Very soon upon the arrival of the cars at the above place, lovely young ladies and graceful cavaliers scattered through the groves with true sylvan freedom. All were happy. The children, with their light locks sporting with the wind; young men and maidens with glistening eyes and blushing cheeks whispering the old new tale, all were astir, and bent on a day of pleasure.

DANCING.

Out from the heat and dust and bustle of the city, with the blue sky as an awning, the little birds as an audience, and Clark's band as the music, the dancing filled this reporter's heart with a pleasure akin to that felt while listening to the song of the birds, or gazing at the glories of a gorgeous sunset.

DINNER.

What an array of baskets, filled too with delicacies, and all cordially invited to partake from them. The printer's basket is carried like his heart, in his hand, and it is open to all. Ah! they could afford to have their baskets examined, for who ever saw a printer's wife, mother or sister, who did not know exactly what is needed for a dinner on a picnic, and know too how to prepare it?

COUSIN JOHN THRASHER

had a dinner also, and it was none of your soda water, sarsaparilla affairs—but to welcome the party he brought out the fattest chickens, the freshest eggs, the newest butter and the blandest smiles.

THE ENJOYMENT

was more than anticipated. The crowd was quite large, the weather pleasant and all happy. This reporter witnessed one or two little tender scenes. Once thought he heard a "yes" float from a young lady's lips like satin ribbon gradually drawn out; but he will not tell. One thing he must say—that is, that the winged and beautiful son of Mercury and Venus, with his bow and quiver, found as genial employment at Norcross at the picnic as he could have been engaged at anywhere else.

THE RETURN.

The ride back to the city was a safe and pleasant one, and a summing up of the hours spent at Norcross is, that unrestrained mirth, music, dancing and bright eyes, were triumphant throughout the day.

Arc De Triomphe.

This famous column in the Place Vendome was of bronze, one hundred and thirty-five feet high, and was made out of twelve hundred cannons captured in the campaigns of Napoleon, to whose glory it was dedicated. As a work of art, it was remarkable, being copied after Trajan's pillar in Rome. In falling it broke into several pieces, and the stature of Napoleon on the top lost its head.

Grant.

The New York Sun says that the Democratic leaders are unwilling to admit that there is a powerful Republican combination against the renomination of Grant. It says that this unwillingness is remarkable because opposed to a "crowd of notorious facts;" and that it is instructive, because it betrays rather than conceals the well matured opinion of the Democracy that Grant is the weakest candidate whom the Republicans can place in the field, and is, therefore, the very man whom they desire to encounter. That's naughty talk for a Radical paper.

Pennsylvania Ku-Klux.

The bloodshed which we have so long anticipated at Scranton, Pennsylvania, has commenced, and two men, named Jones and Davis, have been shot. A miner near Hazleton has also been shot, and had his throat cut! If this is not Ku-Kluxery, as bad as any we hear of in North Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama or any other Southern State, we do not know what is. If news had come to us from the South of the murder of three men, it would not have been modestly printed under the title of "The Coal Troubles." We read that a thousand men in Scranton, clamored for lynch-law, and the constables only kept them at bay by the most persistent efforts.—New York Globe.

At Last!

"Better late than never," is a saying that is as true as it is old; but how much better would it have been for Paris, or what is left of it, if the news that we to-day lay before our readers had come about a week earlier! The Vendome Column would then have been spared, and the world might perhaps have found some little sympathy with a people who have now rendered themselves deserving of the name of iconoclasts and madmen only. But past is past, if not forgotten; and if retribution should prove severe, and the gay Girondins and other revolutionary anthem be turned into death-rattle of the Commune, let us remember, then, that they brought it upon themselves, and that it is the blood that they wantonly shed which comes over their own doomed heads at last.—Washington Patriot.

The Work of the Scissors Man.

Most people think that the selection of suitable matter for a newspaper the easiest part of the business. How great an error. To look over a hundred exchange papers daily, from which the question is not what shall, but what shall not be selected, is no very easy task. If every person who reads a newspaper could have edited it, we should have less complaints. Not unfrequently it is the case that an editor looks over his exchange papers in search of something interesting, and finds absolutely nothing. Every paper is dryer than a contribution box, and yet something must be had, his paper must be out and something must be in it, and he does the best he can. To an editor who has the least care in what he selects, the writing he has to do is the easiest part of his labor.

Every subscriber thinks the paper is printed for his own benefit, and if there is nothing that suits him it must be good for nothing. As many subscribers as an editor has, so many tastes he has to consult. One wants something very smart and sound. One likes anecdotes, fun and frolic, and his next door neighbor wonders that a man of sense will put such stuff in his paper. Something spicy comes out, and the editor is a blackguard. Next comes something argumentative, and the editor is a dull fool. And so, between them all, the poor fellow gets the worst of it. They never reflect that what does not please them, will please the next man; but they insist that if the paper does not please them, it is good for nothing.—Exchange.

GAINESVILLE.

The Excursion of the Templars.

Jubilee Over the Air-Line Railroad.

A train of eight loaded cars left Atlanta for Gainesville yesterday to participate in the big jollification of the Hall county people over the long looked-for completion of the Air-Line Railroad to Gainesville. We saw many familiar faces aboard. Knights Templar, Atlanta citizens, ladies and triangular cocked-hat boxes crammed the cars.

At Norcross, where we stopped a few moments, Cousin John Thrasher was called on for a speech. Col. Peeples pulled him on the platform, when he cutely turned the tables by introducing the Colonel to the crowd to make a speech. The latter ingloriously fled, when Mr. Thrasher said he was too much shocked by the good looks of the crowd to talk.

At near twelve we arrived at Gainesville, and found an immense gathering lining the road awaiting the train. There must have been four thousand in the gathering. Many saw the engine for the first time in their lives. The feeling of delight that the railroad had at last come to open up their beautiful country to the world was intense and general. It was a great turnout. The Knights Templars formed in full uniform. Their appearance excited much interest. One bewildered African wondered if they were what was called "de fire ingine companies." As the Templars made a bobble in their drill, another critical observer remarked that the company was green anyhow.

The depot is some three-quarters of a mile from the town. This has created considerable dissatisfaction and arrayed a good deal of hostility to the road.

The guests were marched to a fine grove. The meeting was called to order, and Colonel Ephraim Johnson installed as chairman. He gave a cordial welcome to the guests. It was the intention to call Mayor Hammond to the chair, but he did not appear until afterwards. Colonel Johnson then introduced Colonel Langston as the speaker. He made a fervent, graceful speech, complimenting Atlanta, and presaging the good things the road was to do for Hall county. He got off many happy allusions, and made the guests feel very good. Mayor Hammond was called on to respond for the guests. He made some brief but appropriate remarks, indicating the good feeling that existed between Atlanta and Gainesville. Colonel Peeples was called on by his old friends, and spoke humorously and happily. He was raised in Hall county, and visited it after a long period. His local allusions were well received.

Col. Johnson called for Mr. Norcross, the first President of the Air-Line Road, who took the stand. He spoke with pride of his connection with this great enterprise, and made many pleasant allusions to his coadjutors in the project.

Col. Obear, the Grand Commander of the Templars, in response to a call, spoke a graceful little impromptu speech in which he got off an applauded hit in a felicious comparison between the much talk of diamonds of Hall county and the eyes of her women.

At this crisis the large crowd was marshalled to a basket dinner—a regular old-fashioned, delightful, sumptuous basket meal, in whose preparation the good housewives of Hall displayed their powers lavishly. The remaining hour and a half until the train left was spent in exploring the country as far as practical. This we shall reserve until our next issue, when we shall tell our impressions of the railroad and the country on its line.

We have to thank Colonel Phil. R. Simmons and Mr. Thompson Guthrie for kindness and attention.

Altogether the excursion was a most pleasant affair and cannot but have good results in the association brought about between our Atlanta citizens and the people of the interesting section of country around Gainesville.

Colonel T. Alexander had generously prepared a barbacue for the Knights at his railroad camp, about three miles beyond Gainesville, but the Knights were unable to attend. About a dozen of the Atlanta citizens went out and enjoyed a rare treat. Wine flowed freely. The preparation was bountiful and sumptuous, and was richly appreciated by the fortunate few who had the privilege of its enjoyments.

Council and the Atlanta and Savannah Railroad.

Our City Council, at its regular meeting last night, took up the question of a subscription to the Atlanta and Savannah Railroad, and took definite and decided action thereon, as will be seen from our report. The resolutions of Alderman Solomons, which passed with but one dissenting vote, pronouncing against any subscription, Council regarding it as not required by the best interests of the city.

The course of the Council may or may not be the best. We have advocated the subscription, and confess to some disappointment; but we would advise those citizens of the interior who have anxiously and perhaps confidently looked to Savannah for material and liberal aid in the enterprise, not to be hasty in making up their minds on the course of her constituted authorities. Events, when developed, may enable us all to see more clearly than we do at present.

How can the City Council of Savannah be so blind to the true interests of that city? We are confident that this action is contrary to the wishes of the Savannah people, and we believe that they will yet set the matter right.

NOTE.—After the above was in type, the Macon Telegraph brings the report that the Central has leased the Macon and Western Road. If this be true, the action of the City Council of Savannah had doubtless some connection with it.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

GRAPHIC PEN SKETCHES OF ITS MEMBERS—NEXT MEETING PLACE.

HUNTSVILLE, ALA., May 24, 1871.

Editor Constitution: Rev. Dr. Plummer, the moderator of the General Assembly is gentle, though firm; courteous, yet dignified, and makes a capital presiding officer. His personal appearance is very striking. He is very tall and erect, with a large muscular frame; has abundance of hair and a long flowing beard, both of snowy whiteness, and black eyes, which have by no means lost their fire and brightness; though I suppose he is at least seventy years of age. He reminds one of the ancient patriarchs. His complexion is still fair and rosy, and he looks as if he might come to a patriarchal age.

One of the most interesting speeches, of the many which I have heard in this Assembly, was the reponse of this grand old man to Mr. Todd, of New Jersey, a delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed (Dutch) Church, bearing the Christian salutation of that body, and seeking a closer union of sympathy and brotherhood. His great heart was overflowing with cordial love and good will, and was manifested with such touching, whole-souled feeling, that few eyes in that great congregation were not moistened with tears. As moderator, he preached the morning sermon, on the Sabbath before the Assembly, from St. Peter 3:18, which was not only very interesting, but great in its tenderness and in its simplicity. He is a Professor in the Theological Seminary, in Columbia, S. C., and is the author of valuable Commentaries upon the Psalms, and upon one of the Epistle. He ranks among the first writers preachers of the age.

REV. R. L. DABNEY, D. D.,

is a Professor in Union Theological Seminary, Va. He is a man of middle age, with dark complexion and black eyes, and is altogether, a gentleman of very fine appearance. He was moderator of the last Assembly and consequently preached the opening sermon to this one. He is a man of great intellectual power and one of the most influential in the Assembly. He is also an author, having published Sacred Rhetoric, and Lectures on Theology.

REV. JOHN N. WADDEL,

though not a member of the Assembly, was present and presided over the Convention, called by the last Assembly to consider the question of establishing a great University for the Southern Presbyterian Church. He is a son of the late Moses Waddel, D. D., eminent for his services to the cause of education and religion. He is a man of serious demeanor, of great personal dignity, and very wise in counsel. He manifested his wisdom in the Convention, over which he presided by conducting its members, holding almost as many views as members, to a unanimous conclusion.

REV. JOSEPH WILSON, D. D.,

formerly pastor of the Augusta Church, was last night inaugurated by this Assembly as Professor of Pastoral and Evangelistic Theology and Sacred Rhetoric in the Theological Seminary at Columbia, S. C., on which occasion he delivered a most admirable and learned discourse upon the art of training preachers for their sacred calling.

He is the stated clerk of the Assembly. He is a tall, slender man, with a pale intellectual face, of agreeable manners, and very pleasant and genial insocial life.

REV. DAVID WILLS, D. D.,

President of Oglethorpe University, recently removed to your city, is of fine personal appearance, and one of the most noticeable members of this august body. He has devoted himself with great zeal and success to the cause of education, so prominent in this Assembly. He preached a popular discourse to a large and appreciative congregation on Friday night, which will add to his growing reputation as a preacher. It is worthy of notice that he used neither manuscript nor notes on that occasion. His manners in the pulpit are grave, serious and dignified, and his strikingly rich and deep-toned voice was the admiration of all who heard him.

REV. JOHN S. WILSON, D. D.,

also from Atlanta, and pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of that city, is one of the most remarkable men of the Assembly. Nature was liberal in bestowing upon him a fine, large muscular frame, a vigorous intellect and a large heart. He has not preached before the Assembly, but it is said by those who know him, that the older he grows the richer and sweeter are his spiritual thoughts, reminding one of the fabled swan (is it):

"His sweetest notes are the last he sings."

REV. J. LEIGHTON WILSON, D. D.,

for many years, in early life, a missionary in Western Africa, and later, for many years the faithful and earnest Secretary of the Board of Missions; is a grand man with a great head and a greater heart, both of which he devotes untiringly to his great work. He is thoroughly acquainted with the state of all our missions, and with the missionaries themselves under the care of the Board. It is a great treat to listen to him in the Sabbath School (which pleasure I had on the Sabbath), or to hear him plead his cause before the assembled congregation. When he shall be called home to enjoy the reward of his labors and to enter the mansion prepared for him in the city of God, who will, who can fill his place?

REV. A. M. COWAN,

from Central Ohio, is a very peculiar looking personage. He is very active in his movements and bright in intellect, though he sometimes wanders from the point in question and has to be called to order by the Moderator. He is very tenacious of the rights and privileges of the Southern Church, and represents "that he has had his head cut off three times" by that of the North, of which, in consequence, as might be supposed, he has a just and natural horror.

REV. A. D. POLLOCK,

from Chesapeake Presbytery Virginia, preached on Saturday night. He is said to be an able divine. He certainly advanced some very original views from the text "There remaineth, therefore, a rest for the people of God." He said that "rest might be translated sabbaticism," and that it was probable that there was a Sabbath long before Adam was created, which idea he illustrated from the text.

"All the sons of God shouted for joy." Shouted, he thought indicated worship, and probably Sabbath worship. He supposed Adam and Eve to have been created chilren, being nurtured in Paradise by angels and growing up to maturity there; which belief he founded upon the revelation that God planted trees in the garden, which were at first small, and grew with Adam and Eve till mature, when they bore fruit. But enough.

The next Assembly is to be held in Richmond, Virginia. L. L.

☞ Judge C., of Memphis was recently called to preside as chairman at a public meeting in that city. During the proceedings an exciting discussion sprung up, and amid the confusion of lound speeches, motions and cross motions, one speaker called out impatiently to have his motion put to the meeting. "Has your motion a second?" inquired the chair. "Yes sir; it has fifty seconds, at least." "Then let it have ten more and the chair will make a minute of it.

☞ Tree planting in Nebraska is a regular department of agricultural settlement, and a company of Swedes have just ordered 12,000 cottonwood trees for one of their farms.

PRESIDENT DAVIS.

ARRIVAL OF THE CONFEDERATE CHIEFTAIN—OVATION EXTENDED BY THE PEOPLE OF AUGUSTA—SPEECHES OF THE PRESIDENT AND HON H. W. HILLIARD—RECEPTION TO BE HELD TO-DAY.

On yesterday evening, General Lafayette McLaws, of this city, received a brief telegram from General M. C. Butler, dated at Columbia, South Carolina, and stating that President Davis would arrive here that night at 8 o'clock.

Several of our leading citizens at once determined to give a quiet to the distinguished visitor, though the briefness of the time seemed to forbid the idea of such a thing.

As it was known how averse Mr. Davis is to anything like a public demonstration, the affair was kept rather quiet, and too great publicity avoided. But somehow the news crept out, and spread like a fire on the prairies, and by seven o'clock in the evening a large and enthusiastic crowd had assembled in the Union Depot to await the arrival of the Charlotte train, in order that they might catch a glimpse of "Jeff. Davis." When there was a rush made for the passenger cars, and they were soon filled, while a large crowd waited impatiently outside. At last the members of the committee emerge from the door of the rear car, and following them is seen the well known face and form of the Confederate chieftain. The multitude surges forward to meet him, and every one attempts to extend an individual welcome.

At last the crowd gives way to let him pass, and he marches to the western end of the depot, where the carriages are waiting to conduct him to the hotel. As he emerges from the building a wild and enthusiastic cheer bursts forth, and the hero is again stopped for a hand-shaking. At last the carriages are reached. Mr. Davis, followed by Generals McLaws and Stovall, and Hon. H. W. Hilliard, step into a phæton, to which are attached four magnificent horses, furnished for the occasion and driven by Capt. R. J. Wilson, a gallant officer of the Forty-eighth Georgia, who lost an arm in the service. Cheer after cheer rent the air, until the carriages reached the hotel, where was an immense crowd in attendance. Mr. Davis was at once taken up stairs, to one of the parlors, and held a reception of a few minutes, for everybody wanted to speak to and shake the hand of the beloved leader.

HOW HE LOOKED.

Near the doorway the ex-President stood with several distinguished citizens, who introduced their fellow-townsmen as they approached. How did he look? after the trials of ten years, which would have killed any ordinary mortal. As the visitor entered the room, his eye rested upon the gentlemen near the entrance. The central figure of the group is a tall but thin man, straight as an arrow, and with more the port and bearing of a soldier than a statesman, though his manners are most winning and graceful, and every comer is immediately put at his ease. A handsomely shaped head, covered with thick iron gray hair (strange this is, for few men in America sport natural hair after fifty.) The face is thin and narrow, and the cheeks are sunken somewhat, but the forehead is high and intellectual, and the nose, slightly aquiline, is delicately chiseled. The lips, drawn rather closely together, denote the extraordinary firmness and resolution characteristic of the man. The chin is covered with beard, and, in addition to a goatee, he has allowed beard to grow upon his cheeks, and a closely trimmed moustache is sported upon the upper lip. The beard is like the hair, "a sable streaked with silver." The hands are narrow and symmetrical, and the fingers taper and aristocratic. His whole appearance denotes the highest nervous organization, combined with a wonderful quantity of brain power. Always unostentatious in his attire, Mr. Davis wore last night a neat but unpretending suit of gray—the color reminding one of the cloth worn by the soldiers of the Lost Cause.

THE SUPPER.

The reception lasted for some ten or fifteen minutes, and then Mr. Davis retired to his room. At nine o'clock he, with some thirty or forty invited guests, sat down to a supper prepared for them, at which there was neither wine-drinking or speech-making.

THE SERENADE.

Soon after nine o'clock a brass band came in front of the hotel and played several pieces appropriate to the occasion. At about half-past nine o'clock Mr. Davis, accompanied by Hon. H. W. Hilliard and others, appeared upon the piazza of the building, an immense crowd having collected beneath. The music ceased, and Mr. Hilliard spoke as follows, frequently being interrupted by bursts of applause:

HON. H. W. HILLIARD'S SPEECH.

Mr. Davis: We are here to welcome you. I do not know that any higher tribute can be paid to any man than that which we offer to you this evening. You hold no office. You can confer no patronage. You can advance no man's fortunes. You are resting for a night from your journey. But you see around you those who come to offer you the unbought tribute of their respect and admiration. Whatever opinions may be entertained by men in regard to the merits of the mighty struggle through which these States have just now passed, every one must honor you for the manner in which you have borne yourself in the midst of the contest and since. You were always faithful to the trust committed to you. It is but just to you, and to the great cause you represented, to say, that no man ever bore himself more heroically through the storm of war than you did, while it lasted, and no man ever bore himself with more dignity under disaster and the ruin of a grand cause than you have done. You have emulated the courage and the constancy of the illustrious man who met the whole power of imperial armies, without being moved from his stead and resolute attitude of defiance. William the Silent, whose motto was—

"Serene in the midst of the surging billows."

And since the war ended, you have uttered no vain regrets nor indulged in futile resistance to power.

Marius, seated upon the ruins of Carthage, deplored his broken fortunes. You have quietly submitted your fortunes to history. History will vindicate you.

I well remember when I met you for the first time. We took our seats in the Congress of the United States from neighboring States—you from Mississippi, I from Alabama. You sat on the Democratic side of the House, and I took my place with the Whigs. Divided as those two great parties were, both were patriotic. Both respected the Constitution, neither party aspired to the overthrow of constitutional liberty; neither party sought to crush the States; neither party undertook to construct a great central despotism. But when a faction rose into power and placed its representative in the seat of Executive authority, all was changed. I do not enter into the history of the events that followed. I know that you were not rash. You did what you could to save the Republic, to promote peace. But when the Southern States made their declaration of independence, and constructed a common government for their defense, you were called to the post of authority, of danger, and of duty.

I do not now propose to review the dread drama that closed in the overthrow of the Southern cause. That is not a lost cause. It is the cause of constitutional liberty, and will yet triumph.

I am instructed to welcome you to the hospitalities of the city of Augusta.

Mr. Davis replied as follows:

My Friends and Fellow-citizens of Georgia:

I feel that I have a peculiar claim upon the people of Georgia, and that the people of this State have, also, a peculiar claim upon me. My father was a citizen of Georgia for many long years ago, and to him have I often listened in the days of my boyhood as he told to me traditions of the great revolution. It was to this city of Augusta—this ancient old town upon the banks of the Savannah—that my father, then but a mere boy, came to join the revolutionary forces, and enlisted beneath the American flag. I am proud of my father, and of his State. If it is a crime to feel proud of this seir—to glory in his devotion to the cause of the right—to remember with exultation his services in defense of liberty, then, my friends, is it also a crime to oppose a despotic centralization of power, and uphold the right of a State to withdraw from a voluntary compact entered into for the preservation of the freedom of them all. If this is a crime, then am I a criminal, and it is the only offense of which I have been guilty. I repeat, Georgians, that I claim to be of Georgia descent, and I glory in my lineage.

NOT HIMSELF, BUT THE CAUSE HONORED.

Although the distinguished gentleman who welcomed me to your city with words so kindly and so eloquent has said that you pay a tribute to me by your presence here to-night. I cannot think that he was correct in this remark. It is not a tribute to me individually, but because you feel that I am one of yourselves that you come to do me honor. And while I am fully aware of this fact, do not imagine that I feel at all mortified at it, or that my vanity is wounded because you honor me only as the representative of your cause. That cause is dear to me—more precious even than life (applause), and I glory in its remembrance.

HIS WORDS TORTURED AND MISCONSTRUED.

Just here let me say to you that I well know how every utterance of mine is seized upon by the organs and members of a certain faction. I am well aware of the eagerness with which every word of mine is caught up, and the ingenuity with which it is distorted and used in furtherance of designs upon my people, and hence I dare not speak to you as I desire. My heart is full to overflowing, God knows, but I cannot speak. Many memories of the past are struggling in my brain, but I must be silent.

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.

Though I must not speak, it is no fear for myself which commands my lips to be closed. No; I have been punished for my crimes, and have experienced the worst which could be imposed. In the cant language of the day, punishment with me is "played out." The worst that can be done has been done, and I have no more to fear. If I speak it is not myself, but you, who would be injured, for, unfortunately, additional wrongs can yet be heaped upon you. Therefore if I claim merit for anything, it will be for keeping silent. My simplest words may work you harm. If I say, "Good night, my friends, go to your homes." and a congressional investigating committee happened to be within hearing, its members would swear that I directed you to go off and join the Ku-Klux. [Laughter and applause.] Filled with that jealousy which springs from the knowledge of their inferiority, and of the justice of your pretensions, and conscious of broken covenants and a violated Constitution, they mistrust every movement, and tremble with fear when they think that right may again prevail. [Applause.]

"WAIT AND HOPE."

But wrong cannot always be triumphant. I will say nothing and you must do nothing, even though tyranny oppresses grievously upon you. Forbear for a season, and a day will come when all will yet be well. I may not, nor may some of you live to see it, but it is surely coming. (Applause.) He who reigns above and lives always, will see that justice is done. He will not allow the wicked to always remain in power, nor the righteous to be oppressed. We can wait until that day comes, and in the meantime be quiet. 'Tis an old and wise saying, that a good biting dog never barks much. If we wait patiently a sense of justice will yet return to the people of the United States, or an opportunity will come when our rights can be gained, and not only our rights—the rights of the South—but the rights of all the people; the rights which were fought for and obtained at the point of the sword in the first revolution. (Applause.)

CONCLUSION.

But though I cannot and should not speak, I fear that where the mind and the heart are both so full, that I will not be able to restrain my words. I cannot think one thing and say another, and unless the honest emotions of my soul can be expressed, I do not care to speak. I thank you, gentlemen, for your kindness, and feel deeply touched at its exhibition. May God foster and preserve you. If ever the day comes when I can speak freely, I will be among you, and say to you all that is in my heart. Till then, farewell, and may the Great God be with you always. (Applause.)

At the conclusion of the speeches, the party retired from the piazza, and the crowd dispersed, cheering for Davis.

TO-DAY.

In obedience to the general desire of our citizens, Mr. Davis will remain in Augusta to-day. Between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock he will hold a reception in the parlors of the Planters' Hotel, at which he will be pleased to see his friends.—Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel.

Ex-President Davis is expected in Atlanta to-day, and, if he arrives, he will be properly received and welcomed.—ED. CONSTITUTION.

City Intelligence.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Colonel G. W. Adair will sell on Wednesday next twenty-six residence and business lots on Marietta street and North Avenue.

The Supreme Court Decisions are now out in pamphlet form. Price one dollar. Address W. A. Hemphill & Co.

Mrs. E. Hunt has a furnished house to rent.

F. M. Queen will sell at Kile's corner, this morning, five milch cows and calves.

News ink in twenty-five pound kegs for sale by W. A. Hemphill & Co.

The General Agency of the National Life Insurance Company for Northern Georgia is now vacant. See notice.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick, on West Mitchell street, near the Macon and Western Depot, keeps a pleasant boarding house.

Send your orders for job work to THE CONSTITUTION job office.

See card of Reuben Arnold and Howard Van Epps, relative to claims of any kind against the Government. They have been very successful in settling Washington claims, many of importance.

Mrs. Nancy Hayes applies to Judge Morrow, of Clayton county, for exemption of personalty.

See notice of sale of the Atlanta Intelligencer at public outcry.

THE Board of Education elected by the City Council will meet at the office of Mayor Hammond, this afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

IN the last few days quite a number of the "boys in blue," at the barracks here, have been paid off and discharged.

THE CONSTITUTION job office is under obligations to Mr. Nugent, the gentlemanly steward of the Kimball House, for finely flavored ice cream.

THE hands on the gold mines of Judge W. B. Smith, at Grantville, have panned out in three weeks over four hundred pennyweights in gold.

THE Baptist Church at Decatur will be dedicated on to-morrow at eleven o'clock, A. M. The sermon will be preached by Rev. D. E. Butler, of Madison.

A COMMUNICATION on our table playfully says that, in the excursion to Gainesville yesterday not enough water was taken along. Does the writer mean to insinuate that it was "fire-water?"

CORRECTION.—The band which made such delicious music at the Knights Templar ball at the Kimball House, was not the Post Band, but the Gate City, led by that fine musician, Prof. Freyer.

THE members of the bar who went on a fishing excursion to Brunswick, returned last night in good health. They brought with them two sea turtles weighing between 300 and 400 hundred pounds each.

ALL who are interested in the completion of the new Trinity Church are requested to meet at the office of D. F. Hammond & Son, corner of Alabama and Whitehall streets, this afternoon at half past five o'clock.

REMEMBER that the sale of rare and beautiful plants will take place at 10 o'clock this morning at the old stand of Gordon, Wills & Co., under the National Hotel. The plants are fresh, from the celebrated nurseries of Harden & Cole, near this city.

IN the United States District Court yesterday, the case of the United States vs. one hundred and seventy boxes of tobacco was tried, and decided in favor of the tobacco. Though successful, the tobacco will either be chawed or end in smoke.

IN our notice of the religious exercises of the Knights Templar at the Second Baptist Church we alluded to the fine music by the choir—the choir of St. Philips' Episcopal Church. The choir is composed of fine singers, and is deserving of great praise for their efforts on that occasion.

VALUE OF REAL ESTATE.—The assessors report the value of real estate as follows: First ward, $3,131,872; second ward, $2,692,400; third ward, $695,675; fourth ward, $1,905,400; fifth ward, $4,106,-300—total, $12,531,647. The assessors can be found at the City Hall for two or three weeks arranging in alphabetical order their returns. Those wishing to have corrections made will please note.

RARE and luscious were the strawberries, delicious and appetising the ice-cream, and acceptable the accompaniments, that several members of the editorial staff of THE CONSTITUTION sat down to yesterday evening at John Peel's restaurant on Marietta street. He always keeps the best, and serves it up in the best style. He is a clever, jovial, live gentleman, and knows how to cater to the wants of the public. If you want anything nice and good, go to John Peel's and get it.

AT the meeting of the stockholders of the Atlanta, Decatur and Stone Mountain Turnpike Company on Thursday, the Constitution was adopted.

W. G. Whidby, W. J. Houston and P. P. Rice were appointed as the Committee on Printing.

The route from Atlanta to Decatur was adopted, and the Engineer authorized to advertise for sealed proposals to clear, grub, grade and macadamize the road.

An instalment of ten per cent per share was ordered to be called in.

Work will commence on the road in a few weeks. It is a fixed fact.

[OFFICIAL.]

PROCEEDINGS OF COUNCIL—Atlanta, May 26, 1871.—Council met. Present, Hon. Dennis F. Hammond, Mayor, and Aldermen Lowry, Cassin, Wells, Rice, Fowler, McLendon, Snyder, Grubb, Finch and Graham.

PETITIONS.

Of Col. G. W. Adair, asking Council to define State street and North avenue, on the east side of Marietta street, opposite Scofield's Rolling Mills, fifty feet wide. Referred to Street Committee with power to act.

Of J. G. Martin, announcing that he would not abide the assessment of his property on Rawson street. Referred to Street Committee.

Of J. C. Peck et al., asking that Fort street, between Hunter and Decatur streets, from Decatur street to the Georgia Railroad be worked. Referred to Street Committee.

Of S. B. Oatman, announcing that he would not abide the assessment on his property on Rawson street. Referred to Street Committee.

WEST MITCHELL STREET.

Alderman Wells offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The Atlanta University has closed up West Mitchell street without authority of law; and,

Whereas, They have failed and refused after notification to reopen the same; and,

Whereas, The City Marshal has been instructed to open said street, and has failed to do so; therefore

Resolved, That the City Marshal be again instructed to open the said street on to-morrow, 27th instant.

After a discussion in which Aldermen Wells, Fowler, Finch and Snyder participated the resolution was not adopted, it being considered unnecessary, but a resolution instructing the Engineer to ascertain and define West Mitchell street that the Marshal may be enabled to carry the resolution into effect.

BOARD OF HEALTH HEARD FROM.

Dr. O'Keefe, from the Board of Health, made the following reports:

Adversely on petition to abolish the slaughter pen of Sparks & Tye. Adopted.

Adversely, on petition to abolish the slaughter pen of Mr. Johnson. Adopted.

On petition relative to condition of Mrs. Martin's lot, recommending that the city fill up the sidewalk on the side of the property, and instruct the Marshal to require the owner of the property to have it drained. Adopted.

The resignation of Dr. J. P. Logan, as a member of the Board of Health read and accepted.

FREE PEDDLER'S LICENSE.

Free peddler's license granted to several colored females.

RAILROAD WAR ON PEDDLERS.

Major E. B. Walker, Western and Atlantic Railroad; Col. L. P. Grant, Atlanta and West Point Railroad; E. A. Werner, Georgia Railroad; H. P. Clark, Macon and Western Railroad request Council to instruct the Marshal to remove at once all apple and soda water stands, cake boxes and pie tents, from the side walks at Whitehall crossing on the railroad right of way, and abate them entirely from between the National Hotel to Kidd's property, and railroad block and James' new foundation. Tabled.

HANLEITER'S CITY DIRECTORY.

The Finance Committee were instructed to confer with Mr. Hanleiter relative to the purchase of one hundred copies of his directory.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTIGATION.

Alderman Wells charged the Marshal, Major Williams, with neglect of duty in not carrying out the resolution of Council to open West Mitchell street. Marshal Williams asked that a committee of investigation be appointed.

Alderman Lowry moved that a committee be appointed, which prevailed.

Committee—Lowry, Cassin and McLendon.

THE SITUATION.

Alderman Cassin made an earnest and able effort on the situation of Atlanta, the necessity for prompt and intelligent action. Retrenchment and reform in public expenditures should be rigidly practised.

THE WATER WORKS.

The subject of water works was alluded to by Alderman Cassin. He stated that it was rumored that Messrs. Stidham & Co., would sue the city for the completion of their contract.

On motion, Col. N. J. Hammond, was heard from. He stated the views of his clients on the matter. They are willing to have the matter adjusted.

JONES AVENUE BRIDGE.

Alderman Fowler asked what was the reason for the delay in building Jones Avenue Bridge.

Alderman Wells said that he had not been furnished with specifications by the City Engineer.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The Finance Committee recommended the payment of bills amounting to $——. Adopted.

Council then adjourned.

WHEAT.

HOW TO DO WHEN RUST AFFECTS IT.

Editor Constitution—DEAR SIR: The accompanying letter from Mr. Samuel Barnett, of Wilkes, was received to-day, addressed to The Plantation; but as the next issue of that paper will not occur until next week, and as it is important that the valuable suggestions of Mr. Barnett should be at once brought to the attention of wheat growers, I respectfully request that his communication be published in THE CONSTITUTION, with the hope that it may be copied by other journals in the State. Mr. Barnett's opinions on agricultural topics are entitled to great weight. He is the commissioner appointed by the State Agricultural Society to organize agricultural societies in each county of the State.

Respectfully yours,
C. W. HOWARD,
Editor of The Plantation.

RUST IN WHEAT—EARLY CUTTING.

Mr. Editor: Allow me to call earnest attention to the necessity of the early cutting of wheat affected by the rust. This important crop is seriously threatened in many parts of the State, and prompt action will contribute much to saving it.

A full discussion of the subject will be found in the Agricultural Report of 1862, page 78, 79 and 92. I have had some corroborations of the views and facts there given with my own observations.

From experiments tried in England, the early cutting has been found advantageous, aside from danger of rust. The best time was when the wheat was in the dough state, but when cut down at an earlier period, it made a better yield of flour than when fully ripe, as the following table shows one hundred pounds of wheat yielded as follows:

	When cut.	Flour.	Shorts.	Bran.
No. 1.	In the milk.	75 lbs.	7 lbs.	16 lbs.
No. 2.	In the dough.	80 "	5 "	13 "
No. 3.	Fully ripe.	72 "	11 "	15 "

I do not know of any experiment at the South in this regard, but find this view of the case sustained by Mr. Todd, an experienced wheat grower, and author of a volume on wheat at the North.

When the rust appears, the following abstract shows the results of cutting at different stages:

Mr. Geo. D. Hendrick had his attention directed to this matter by the Genessee Farmer. The wheat cut when thought too green, so that the workmen stopped, made full plump grains, while the rest was reduced by rust to a half crop.

In another instance the wheat first cut was too green to be tied into bundles. A few days after (three or four) a second lot was cut, and the following week a third lot. The first lot was the best. The results were as follows:

	per acre.	Weight of bushel
First lot	12 bushels.	56 pounds
Second lot	8 "	46 or 48
Third lot not worth threshing.

The reasons given are briefly these: The rust is a parasite, which only lives on a living organism. As soon as the wheat is cut the parasite perishes. Until that time the rust will live and thrive by feeding upon the juices of the living plant.

Now, when the wheat plant reaches the milk state, the nutriment which is to form the grain has already in large measure been taken up from the ground, and is in the stalk and leaves of the plants. The lower part of the stalk begins to turn yellow, and comparatively little fresh material comes from the earth—the sap already in the stalk and blades being elaborated and filling the head. The effect of cutting the wheat is to kill the parasite, and allow the nutriment in the blades and stalk to pass into the grain and render it full and plump.

If cut too late, even when the grain seems plump at first cutting, it will shrink and shrivel in drying. I have had this to occur in my own experience—reducing the estimated yield from nearly twelve bushels to seven.

Intelligent observers, by cutting a bundle or two at different stages of advancement, and more or less affected by rust, labeling the bundles carefully, and observing results, may obtain information this year which will be valuable in their future experience. The probability is strong that early cutting of rusted oats will present us with like advantages.

While these things are probably known to many of your readers, they have not been generally acted on, nor sufficiently tested. And I hope these brief notes may be of public service in both regards, viz: in promoting practical action this season, and in securing some observation of use for the future.

$100,000! $100,000!—Aiken premium land sale;

$100,000 to be distributed to shareholders. Five dollars will purchase a share, including a work of art worth five dollars. The Derby farm property to be distributed embraces the largest Vineyard and Orchard in the South. Unequalled climate! Peaceable country! Generous soil! The salubrious and health-giving climate of Aiken has given it the name of "The Saratoga of the South."

$95,000 in premiums presented to shareholders.

$100,000 in real estate and greenback prizes to be distributed to shareholders.

94 Real Estate Prizes worth from $300 to $25,000.

522 greenback prizes from $5 to $1,000.

Only 19,000 shares will be issued. One share in every thirty-one will draw a prize.

This real estate property, conveyed by deed of trust to the Committee who are to conduct the drawing, is to be transferred by them to the fortunate shareholders as soon as the remaining shares are sold.

The drawing will take place according to the published programme. The day of the drawing will be announced by telegram to the associated press. A small sum invested now may secure a fortune. Every shareholder may rest assured of equal justice, and that this scheme, unlike many others, is "fair, square and honest."

Money received after the books are closed will be promptly returned. For full particulars, as embraced in revised pamphlet, address

DON'T CRY!—But rejoice, for Professor Isaacsen, the inventor of the celebrated "Sure Pop" has hit upon the really only certain rat and mouse killer. Let the people encourage an article which is the result of long study and experience. The rats eats this paste readily and then run the way of the wind, (to get air, etc.,) and then die, away from the premises. We hear many of our friends speaking in the highest terms of this article, it is no humbug and no one troubled with rats will ever regret investing 25 cents in a box of "Isaacsen's Genuine Sure Pop."

Popular Summer Resorts.

Rockbridge Alum Springs, Virginia.

Open May 15th, 1871.

THIS favorite and celebrated watering place will offer additional attractions this season; among other improvements there has been added an elegant and spacious ball-room adjoining the parlor; the parlor has been enlarged and much improved, and the proximity of the two renders each easily accessible. It will be kept in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia.

The waters of these special springs either cure or greatly relieve most cases of Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Chronic Laryngitis, Chronic Pneumonia, Chronic Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Chronic Dysentery. They are also a great value in those affections which are peculiar to the female constitution, and as an appetizer, a tonic and general restorative, they are, perhaps, unrivaled amongst mineral waters. The proprietor will have provided for the lawns and ball-room a first-class band of music, and in general all the sources of amusement and recreation usually found at our best summer resorts will be at the command of the guests at "Rockbridge Alum." The place is within eleven to thirteen hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, etc., by rail, all in day-light. Passengers leave the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot, and new and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road of only eight miles, set down the visitors at the Springs to tea. Beersheba Springs,

GRUNDY COUNTY, TENN.

THIS property having been purchased by the undersigned, and thoroughly refitted and furnished, will be opened to the public for the ensuing season, on the 15th of June next.

For the benefit of those persons who have never visited this, before the war, celebrated Watering Place, we beg leave to say that for the excellency of its Chalybeate and Freestone Waters, grandeur of scenery, and purity of atmosphere, it is not surpassed, if equaled, by any similar establishment in the South. The location is upon one of the highest points of the Cumberland Mountains, within a few hours' ride of the University of the South, and of the large Swiss colony recently established in this State.

Visitors leaving Huntsville, Chattanooga or Nashville by the morning train, will arrive at the Springs via Tullohoma and McMinnville, on the evening of the same day.

Parties wishing to engage rooms for the season, can do so by addressing us at Nashville until the 15th instant, after that time at Beersheba Springs.

Charges for Board.

By the day, $3 00. By the week, $17 50. By the month, $60 00. Children and Servants, half-price.

THE CAROLINA FERTILIZER!

IS MADE FROM THE

PHOSPHATES OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

AND is pronounced by various Chemists, one of the best MANURES known. It was extensively used most of the Cotton-growing States last season, and in a great number of trials, in comparison with other leading Fertilizers, proved superior to every other.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA PHOSPHATES

Are remains of extinct land and sea animals, and possess qualities of the greatest value to the Agriculturist. Pamphlets containing description of this

REMARKABLE DEPOSIT,

With engravings of Fossils found in it, and testimonials proving the superiority of the Fertilizer, will be forwarded on application.

Extract from article in Rural Carolinian, February number, 1871, giving details of experiments with fifteen different Fertilizers:

"From the above experiments and their results, I almost reach some conclusions which may prove of interest to others.

"First—That Peruvian Guano, which has been considered the standard for comparison for all commercial Fertilizers, fails to produce as much cotton as a Fertilizer claiming to contain no ammonia at all.

"Second—That neither the Peruvian nor the unmixed Super-Phosphates produces so well as a combination of the two, or as a commercial Fertilizer containing both super-phosphate and ammonia, like the Carolina Fertilizer, which has produced better results for me than any other commercial Fertilizer.

MEMORIAL DAY—1871.

BY MRS. M. J. PRESTON, OF VIRGINIA.

Past, the clash and clang of battle—
Past, the terrors, trials, tears—
Past, the deadly roar and rattle,
Yet we meet in tears.

Not a shout of exultation
Breaks the sobbing silence deep;
On the death day of a nation,
Is it strange we weep?

But the homage sad we render,
Softens with a proud relief,
And a solemn joy and tender
Mingles with our grief.

Oh, the heroes wrested from us,
Have not lived and died in vain;
For their memories' bow of promise
Spans our years of pain.

Countless eyes have conned their story—
Countless hearts grow brave thereby;
Let us thank the God of Glory
We had such to die!

Where had been the Church's honor,
When the overwhelming flood
Of her foes rushed fierce upon her,
But for martyr's blood?

Where the lofty acclamations,
O'er the wrench of thraldom's chain?
Where the grandeur of the nations
But for patriots slain?

Shall we then in sad procession—
Heads low bowed upon the breast—
Only bring our tears to freshen
Graves where heroes rest?

Rather lay the rose and laurel,
Clad with dew above the sod—
Learn their lives' majestic moral,
Wait and trust in God!

BY TELEGRAPH.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

THURSDAY'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The treaty was ratified by 50 to 12.

Grant spoke half a stick full (eight lines) to the Young Men's Christian Association.

It is reported the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad has subscribed two and a half million dollars to the Lexington and Big Sandy Road—sufficient to complete it.

Grant has signed the treaty.

The Senate confirmed Adison Lowe inspector of steamboats of the second district, and Myers appraiser of merchandise of Mobile; Hunt collector of the second district of Georgia.

The Senate was engaged all day on the contumacious witnesses. Messrs. Tinker and Kirby, of the telegraph office, were presented to the Senate, and their contempt is to be certified to by the District Attorney.

There was a long contest over Gray's nomination as Judge for Texas. The confirmation is improbable.

The Senate will certainly adjourn to-morrow.

Colfax is better.

The Committee on Levees are authorized to be continued during the recess.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The Commercial Advertiser says that an offer has been made to the Treasurer by Jay Cooke, on behalf of his own house and the principal subscription agents and bankers in this city and in Europe, to take on and after the first of June the whole of the new five per cent. loan not then subscribed, for or to the amount of $130,000,000. The offer is regarded favorably by the Secretary, and he is now considering the proposition.

The World's cable from Versailles, Thursday night, says: Archbishop Darboy, ten hostages and nearly fifty priests have been murdered in cold blood.

The Foster jury rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree, with a recommendation for mercy.

POUGHKEEPSIE, May 25.—The fire in the Shandaken Mountains is fearful. The flames in some localities run fifty feet high.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, May 25.—The Yerger case came up before the District Court. The plea of former jeopardy was overruled—the prosecution insisting that the military court, under the reconstruction acts was unconstitutional. The case will be tried a second time on its merits.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, May 25.—The money recently stolen from the Adams Express Company has been recovered. An employee who was in the office and pretended to be chloroformed was implicated.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—At the Point Breeze races, Elmo won the first race. Time 2:31, 2:30, 2:32½.

None Such won the second race. Time 2:22½, 2:30¼, 2:28¼.

ILLINOIS.

QUINCEY, May 25.—The heaviest rain and hail for years fell to-day. The crops are injured. The hail stones weighed from two to three ounces.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, May 25.—The tug boat B. B. Jones exploded at Port Huron, killing six persons.

NEW MEXICO.

SANTA FEE, May 25.—The whole of the mountain of Apaches in Arizona have declared war against the whites. Caused by a recent massacre at Camp Grant.

PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, May 25.—The Emperor of Russia will arrive at Berlin on the 9th of June to witness the triumphal entry of the troops on the 11th of June.

In the German Parliament to-day, in the debate on the bill incorporating Alsace and Lorraine with the German Empire, Prince Bismarck said the task he undertook when he become Minister, to establish the Empire, was nearly accomplished. His health was bad, and his personal wish was to retire from active duty. He remained only as an advocate for the complete restoration of the provinces of Alsace and Lorraine to fatherland. He complained of the lack of confidence shown by Parliament. Unless the amendments it had made to the bill now before it were expunged, he would withdraw the measure and let the Emperor appoint a responsible Ministry in his place. The vote taken and the bill was sent back to the Committee for revision.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, May 25.—In the House of Commons Rylands gave notice of his intention to introduce a resolution that treaties must be submitted to Parliament before ratification.

Gladstone opposed any immediate expression of sympathy with France for outrages in Paris. The government, as yet, has received no official information, and the accounts in the public prints were doubtless exaggerated.

The latest dispatches from Paris says Luxemburg has been blown up, Palaise Royal is still burning, and only the third Louvre has been saved. Fighting still continues at the Hotel de Ville and terminus of the Northern Railroad.

Baron Rothschild gave the Derby stakes, £6,000, to Wells, who rode the winner.

FRANCE.

VERSAILLES, May 25.—Thiers has to-day issued a circular of information to the provinces, as follows: "We are masters of Paris except a small portion which will be occupied to-day. The Louvre is saved. The hotel Minister of Finance partially burned. The Tuilleries and Palais DuQudi Dorsay, in which the Council of State holds its sessions, is wholly destroyed. We have already twelve thousand prisoners and shall have twenty thousand. The soil of Paris is strewn with insurgent corpses; our loss is small. The army behaved admirably. Justice will soon be satisfied and France be happy in the midst of her own misfortunes."

VERSAILLES, May 25.—Picard read a dispatch in the Assembly to-day announcing that Fort Montrouge, the redoubt of Xauts, Brerieries, Panthon and the wine market has been taken by the Government forces.

Nothing is known as to the fate of the hostages still in the hands of the insurgents, and most gloomy apprehensions are entertained.

It is rumored that the Versaillists have occupied the Buttes de Chaumont, whence the insurgents have been bombarding the city with petrolium shells.

OUTSIDE PARIS, May 25, evening.—Since noon a strong southeasterly wind has prevailed, which blows the flames towards the Place de la Bastile, threatening the entire city with destruction.

Government batteries are bombarding Belleville.

Communication with the interior of the city is still closed.

BELGIUM.

BRUSSELS, May 25.—Baron D'Anthan declared in the Chamber of Representatives today that he should not consider or treat as political refugees any villains of the Commune who escape from Paris into the Belgian territory.

GREECE.

ATHENS, May 25.—The Chamber of Deputies voted ten thousand livres to the widow of Mr. Lloyd, who was killed by Marathon brigands.

FRIDAY'S DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Collins and Edwards having fought a drawn fight, they were arrested on their return to city. The fight was to have been renewed this morning.

McMahon summoned the insurgents to surrender. All hereafter found armed will be shot. The Mazas prison was captured. The insurgents had removed the hostages. At noon to-day there was fierce fighting at Pantin.

Foster was sentenced to death on the 14th of July. Judge Cordoza could give him no hope whatever of commutation.

CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, May 26.—The powder works at Hazardville has exploded, killing three persons.

TEXAS.

GALVESTON, May 26.—Rev. Mr. Blum, of Atlanta, Ga., officiated at the dedication of the synagogue here yesterday.

The rains interfere somewhat with Greeley's progress through the State. He is hospitably received everywhere, and promises upon his return to make truthful reports.

KENTUCKY.

LEXINGTON, May 26.—Allie Hunt won the first three straight heats. Time 1:46½, 1:46, 1:49¼.

Albert Dudley's chestnut horse won the second race. Time 3:39¼.

FRANCE.

PARIS, Thursday night, May 25.—The wind has changed and the fires are observed to be slackening. The heavens are still illuminated by the flames. It is said Mazas prison is reduced to cinders.

Fears are still entertained for the safety of Archbishop Darboy.

The insurgents attempting flight in the direction of Audervilliers are repelled.

Cannonading against Belleville and Chaumont continues.

OUTSIDE PARIS, Friday Morning, May 26. The cannonade against the insurgent position at Belleville has been vigorously resumed. Terrible fires are still raging in Paris. The Northern Railway has been repaired, but entrance to the city is still refused. The German positions at Aubearvilleres and elsewhere are being strengthened to prevent the escape of the insurgents. The Germans permit only women and children inhabiting the burning quarters of Paris to leave the city.

VERSAILLES, May 26.—The insurrection is squelched. The insurgents are still confined to Belleville and Les Buttes Chaumont, whence the petroleum shell was fired all over Paris. The following leading insurgents were shot, Valles, Amareux Brunel, Pigault, Dombrowski and Basquet. The reported arrest of Pyatt, Dulescluze and Cluseret, are yet unconfirmed. It is rumored that hostages held by the insurgents are safe, but nothing positive yet known. The following public buildings were destroyed: Place of Tuilleries, the Ministry of Finance, the Prefecture of Police, the Court of Accounts, the Palace of the Legion of Honor, the barracks on the Quay de Orsay, the Hotel de Ville and Mont de Riede.

The following are saved: Ministers of Marine, Interior, Foreign Affairs and Agriculture, Pantheon Ecole, Militaire Ecole, Des Beaux Arts, Bank of France, Credit Fancier and the churches generally.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, May 26.—Paris dispatches announce the Rue Royale destroyed by the mines.

The insurgents have been driven into the cemetery of Pere la Chaise, where they are surrounded and must be captured.

The Daily News' special mentions a rumor that the hostages in Mazas prison are to be shot.

The Liberte says the foreign powers have promised the extradition of the members of Commune in the event of their escape from France.

Courbet, a promident Communist, has been shot by the Versaillists.

READ! READ! READ!!! Health, beauty and happiness restored to modern womanhood, by using Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator or Woman's Best Friend.

☞ Sold by every Druggist in Charlotte, N. C., and by Druggists generally. ☜

We were kindly furnished the following extract from a letter to Dr. F. Scarr, Druggist, of this city:

STANLEY COUNTY, N. C.

Dr. F. Scarr—DEAR SIR: When in your town I asked you for something for my wife. You sold me a bottle of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, or Woman's Best Friend. Please put me up one dozen bottles of the same, as the one I got from you has got my wife finely well. You would not know her now; she has got stout and healthy and as red as a rose. As others are needing it please send me one dozen bottles. ***

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 23, 1871.

Dr. J. H. Bradfield—DEAR SIR: We cheerfully bear testimony to the efficacy and popularity of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator. Among a number of cases it has benefitted in this community, we mention that of a married lady. She was a sufferer from womb disease; had excessive and disagreeable flow of whites; was weak and languid. She was induced to try the Regulator, and after taking the second bottle she is sound and well. Her health and elasticity of spirits have returned, and she has gained many pounds in weight; feels altogether like a new being. Yours very respectfully,

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR!

LIVER DISEASE and Indigestion prevail to a greater extent than probably any other malady, and relief is always anxiously sought after. If the Liver is Regulated in its action, health is almost invariably secured. Indigestion, or want of action in the Liver, causes Headache, Constipation, Jaundice, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, bad taste in the mouth, bilious attacks, palpitation of the heart, depression of spirits, or the blues, and a hundred other symptoms, SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is the best remedy that has ever been discovered for these ailments. It acts midly, effectually, and being a simple vegetable compound, and can do no injury in any quantities that it may be taken. It is harmless in every way; it has been used for forty years, and hundreds of the good and great from all parts of the country will vouch for its virtues, viz:

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia.
Bishop Pierce, of Georgia.
Jno. Gill Shorter, ex Governor of Alabama.
Gen. John B. Gordon.
R. L. Mott, of Columbus, Ga.

are among the hundreds of whom we can refer to.

I beg leave to call the attention of the reader to testimonials in favor of the Schnapps:

I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and as such may be safely prescribed by physicians. DAVID L. MOTT, M. D., Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 1.—I feel that we have now an article of gin suitable for such cases as that remedy is adapted to. DR. J. W. BRIGHT.

"Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, etc.

I take great pleasure in bearing highly creditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it. Having a natural tendency to the mucous surfaces, with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant, CAHS. A. LEAS, M. D., New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov. 21, 1867—UDOLPHO WOLFE, ESQ., Present: Dear Sir—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the "Schiedam Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, (Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

CHEMICAL AND TECHNICAL LABERATORY, 18 EXCHANGE PLACE, New York, Nov. 25, 1867.—Udolpho Wolfe, Esq.: Dear Sir—The undersigned have carefully and thoroughly analyzed a sample of your "Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health. From the result of our examination, we consider the article one of superior quality, healthful as a beverage, and effectual in its medicinal qualities.

Respectfully yours,

an analysis of which shows it to possess wonderful healing properties. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of guests, and the table supplied with the very best the market affords. Trains leave Atlanta for Stone Mountain twice every day and return. As a point for Excursions from Atlanta, and all towns along the Georgia Railroad, it offers superior inducements, or as a boading place for those desiring to be away from the heat and dust of the city, and still be near to business.

NOTICE.

ATHENS, GEORGIA, January 18, 1871.

AT THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE Alumni of the University of Georgia, in August last, the members then present, while rejoicing in the high position to which the University had attained, and recalling the revered memories of very many who in days of yore had been students at this noble Institution, were saddened by the solemn thought that, as year after year passed away, some of her noblest sons were removed from life's busy scenes.

Moved by sweet memories of the past, they desired to gather the scattered brotherhood once more around the shrine of their much-loved Alma Mater, and there, by joining hand and heart, endeavor to awaken fresh zeal in the breast of every son in her behalf.

Actuated by this desire, they unanimously resolved to have an Alumni Dinner. A Committee was appointed to solicit contributions, and make all necessary arrangements for this purpose.

Acting under this resolution, we, the Committee, invite all the Alumni to be present on that occasion, and respectfully request them to send immediately, by Post Office order, or by Express, the contributions they may wish to make for this purpose.

After investigation, we find that it will require at least Five Dollars from each Alumnus, to fully carry out our designs.

The Trustees, with that wisdom which has ever marked all their deliberations in behalf of the University, heartily endorsed the resolutions of the Alumni, and set apart Monday, the 31st of July, exclusively for the exercises of that body, on which day the dinner will take place.

Should the Committee be prevented from carrying out the resolutions of the Alumni, the money contributed will be promptly returned.

Please enclose contributions to Dr. H. R. J. Long, Secretary and Treasurer of Committee.

Very respectfully,

W. W. LUMPKIN, STEVENS THOMAS, N. L. BARNARD, POPE BARROW, H. R. J. LONG. Committee.

The Great Medical Discovery. THE ALLEVIATOR OF ALL PHYSICAL PAIN.

BRANCH & QUIN'S LINIMENT, besides being the best and perhaps the only, remedy for that excruciating disease, the Rheumatism, has been proved capable of curing neuralgia, pneumonia, diptheria, sore throat, toothache, earache, headache.

Though only known to the public for about the space of twelve months, this unrivaled medicine has nevertheless already attained a wide notoriety—hundreds restored to health by its wonderful power, now testify to its many virtues, and the proprietors are constantly receiving applications for it from almost every quarter.

Branch & Quin's Liniment is no Yankee swindle. Its proprietors are Southern men. All they ask is a trial in order to convince any one, even the most obstinate and prejudiced of its merit, and they are prepared to guarantee it to be as represented.

NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER! SCHEETZ'S CELEBRATED BITTER CORDIAL!

WHOLESALE DEPOT, Northwest Cor. Fifth and Race Streets, Philadelphia.

JACOB SCHEETZ, Sole Prop'r.

IT is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt, and speedy remedy for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Bowel Complaint, Dyspepsia, Lowness of Spirits, Faintings, Sick Stomach, Headache, etc. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes. As an indisputable evidence of its medical proprieties, we append a few of the many certificates in our possession.

CUMBERLAND IRON WORKS, TENN., October 12th, 1869.

Jacob Scheetz, M. D.—Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have been having the chills for the last twelve months. I tried all medicines recommended to me for the disease, without receiving any benefit. Having heard Scheetz's Bitters highly spoken of, I procured a bottle, and finding some relief, I continued it until I am happy to say that I am completely well. I not only consider the Bitters a sovereign remedy for chills, but I believe, it is a preventive, and cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted.

Yours very truly, MOLLIE HART.

PHILADELPHIA, February 17th, 1868.

Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have been intimately acquainted with Scheetz's Celebrated Bitter Cordial for the past four years, and have seen its effects in Dyspepsia, Nervous Diseases, Rheumatism, and all the various forms of general debility tending to decline, and from my knowledge of said bitters, I have no hesitation in pronouncing them the best general remedy for the above diseases that is known. You may use this in any way you desire.

WM. CLACK, M. D., No. 816 Market St., and N. E. Cor. 6th and Callowhill.

Mr. Jacob Scheetz—Dear Sir: It affords me much pleasure to infrom you that after suffering for fifteen months with Chills and Fever, I was induced to use your justly celebrated Bitter Cordial, which effected a permanent cure, only used one half pint last August, and had not a chill since. You are at liberty to use this as you please.

PARLOR ALBUM IN FIVE QUARTO VOLUMES.

Price, $9 00 per volume, or $40 00 PER SET COMPLETE.

Description of the Work:

THE PARLOR ALBUM is doubtless the most extensive Art Gallery ever published and, by those who have examined the several portions of the work, it has been pronounced "The Climax of Beauty." Each volume contains 20 full page Chromo Lithographs, in Oil Colors, 40 full page Steel Engravings, 40 full page engravings on wood, and 260 pages of reading matter, descriptive of the illustrations, the whole making each volume about one-half as thick, and same sized pages, of Webster's largest Dictionary. Each volume is complete in itself and will be sold separately, if desired. Sold by Subscription, Only.

Vol. I. Is devoted to Wild American Birds.
Vol. II. Contains Wild American Animals.
Vol. III. American Domesticated Birds and Animals.
Vol. IV. Foreign Birds and Animals.
Vol. V. Fishes, Reptiles and Insects.

This work will at once commend itself to the cultivated American people, and no library will, hereafter, be complete without this addition to its treasures: while as a parlor amusement it is unequaled by American publications.

AGENTS WANTED.

We will give agents very liberal terms for selling the above described publications, and wish to appoint an agent in every town in the United States and British Provinces. Experienced book agents and all other persons of respectability should apply at once. Any Young Man, or Young Lady, can, by devoting a short time during the day or evening, secure a complete set, free of expense, or, if preferred, we will allow a large commission in cash.

We have prepared a most beautiful SPECIMEN BOOK FOR AGENTS, containing 5 of the Oil Chromos, 10 Steel Engravings, 10 Wood Engravings and 50 pages of descriptive reading, being selections from each volume, together with blank paper, specimens of binding, etc.

Our Specimen Book has cost us quite largely, and we do not wish to send it to persons who do not intend to act as agents, but to any one who will make an effort to procure subscribers to the Work, we will send the Specimen Book, prepaid, on receipt of forty cents to cover postage. 7-30 GOLD LOAN OF THE Northern Pacific Railroad.

RAPID PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

THE building of the Northern Pacific Railroad (begun July last) is being pushed forward with great energy from both extremities of the line. Several thousand men are employed in Minnesota and on the Pacific coast. The grade is nearly completed 266 miles westward from Lake Superior; trains are running over 130 miles of finished road, and track laying is rapidly progressing toward the eastern border of Dakota. Including its purchase of the St Paul and Pacific Road, the Northern Pacific Company now has 413 miles of completed road, and by September next this will be increased to at least 560.

A Good Investment.—Jay Cooke & Co. are now selling, and unhesitatingly recommend, as a Profitable and perfectly Safe investment, the First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. They have 30 years to run, bear Seven and Three-Tenths per cent. gold interest, (more than 8 per cent. currency,) and are secured by first and only mortgage on the ENTIRE ROAD AND ITS EQUIPMENTS, and also, as fast as the Road is completed, on 23,000 Acres of Land to every mile of track or 500 Acres for each $1,000 Bond. They are exempt from United States Tax; Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; Denominations: Coupons, $100 to $1,000; Registered, $100 to $10,000.

Lands for Bonds.—Northern Pacific 7-30's are at all times receivable at TEN PER CENT. ABOVE PAR, in exchange for the Company's Lands, at their lowest cash price. This renders them practically INTEREST-BEARING LAND WARRANTS.

Sinking Fund.—The proceeds of all sales of Lands are required to be devoted to the re-purchase and cancellation of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Company. The Land Grant of the Road exceeds Fifty Million Acres. This immense Sinking Fund will undoubtedly cancel the principal of the Company's bonded debt before it falls due. With their ample security and high rate of interest, there is no investment, accessible to the people, which is more PROFITABLE OR SAFE.

Exchanging U. S. Five-Twenties.—The success of the New Government 5 per cent. Loan will compel the early surrender of United States 6 per cents. Many holders of Five-Twenties are now exchanging them for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties, thus realizing a handsome profit, and greatly increasing their yearly Income.

Other Securities.—All marketable Stocks and Bonds will be received at their highest current price in exchange for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties. EXPRESS CHARGES on Money or Bonds received, and on Seven-Thirties sent in return, will be paid by the Financial Agents. Full information, maps, pamphlets, etc., can be obtained on application at any agency, or from the undersigned. For sale by

It is the most simple and easily regulated Machine now in use.

The shuttle gives an even tension from the full to the empty bobbin.

Makes the most durable, elastic and smooth stitch.

Stitching the softest muslin without drawing it into the feed, and from that to heavy cloth or leather without changing the tension, making it capable of a greater range of work than any other machine made.

We use the straight needle, and it will do more and finer work than the curved needles.

The work moves from you instead of sideways, which is much easier to manage.

For speed and ease of operation it is unequaled.

Our machinery is all protected from dust.

Our corder, tucker, gatherer, quilter, trimmer, fringer, binder, hemmer, braider, feller and embroidery attachment are simple and easily used.

We have the best of silks of our own manufacture at wholesale and retail, of all colors and numbers.

We will place the Singer in your family for a trial with any machine you may wish to try with it.

The sales of our New Family Sewing Machine is steadily increasing, showing its popularity.

The new No. 1 Machine for Tailors and Bootmakers is the best in the market.
